

Worshipful Company of Gardeners

Membership costs 2025/26

Freemen and Liverymen

Fines

There are fees (known as 'fines') payable on admission:

Admission to the Freedom	£405 incl. VAT
Admission to the Livery	£405 incl. VAT

There are discounted fines for those applying by patrimony:

Admission to the Freedom by patrimony	£20 incl. VAT
Admission to the Livery by patrimony	£370 incl. VAT

And there are also discounted fines for those under 40:

Admission to the Freedom if under 40	£95 incl. VAT
Admission to the Livery if under 40	£165 incl. VAT

(If invited to join the Livery straight away, you'll only pay the Livery admission fine).

Quarterage

The annual subscription, known as 'quarterage', is due once a year on 1 July (if joining in-year, you'll pay pro rata). The rates for 2025/26 are as follows:

Freedom	£315 incl. VAT
Livery	£425 incl. VAT
Under 40s (Freeman or Liveryman)	£165 incl. VAT

The Company Charity

In addition to their quarterage, Freemen and Liverymen are strongly encouraged to make an annual donation to the Worshipful Company of Gardeners of London Charity. The recommended minimum amount is currently £150/year.
